Dedication

In years to come, the 1969 ARCADIAN will be the source of many memories for the '69 graduating class. These memories we hold dear, but there are also precious memories of, not only our school days, but our pre-school days. These are remembered by some very special people--our parents. In appreciation we, the Senior staff of the 1969 ARCADIAN, dedicate this yearbook to the parents of the 1969 seniors.

Foreword

TO THE SENIOR CLASS:

As you go from Arcadia High School to take your place in the various fields of endeavor, I trust that your activities will creditably reflect the worthwhile precepts which your school has undertaken to teach. Yours is a special responsibility--to uphold a superior tradition of scholarship, to strive to become a well rounded citizen, and to adhere to only those practices which will develop you physically, mentally, and morally.

It has been a distinct pleasure and privilege for me to work with you and I extend to you, each and every senior, my sincere good wishes for a successful and happy future.

MRS. WOLERY

School Secretary

Margaret Wolery is more than just our school secretary. The students, as well as the faculty, have found a listening ear and a mother away from home in her. Margaret goes far beyond the call of duty, and she is a most efficient worker. The main office is such a pleasing place with the seasonal decorations and pleasant atmosphere. Being sent to the office isn't so bad with Margaret Wolery there to greet you!

STUDENT LIFE

Vinyl skirts, jumpers, vests, and coats hit the area in style as these girls show you in their apparel.

Les, Becky, Deb, Ed, and Nancy agree that sweater vests give you a little warmth.

Little-girl suspender jumpers are modeled by our little girls - Becky, Bonnie, and Debbie.

ADMINISTRATION
FACULTY

Communication is most important in school relationships among students, faculty, and administrators. Mr. John Cindric, our school superintendent, realizes this need. He doesn't hesitate to greet the students in the halls with a friendly smile and "Hi!" Despite his many duties in the office, Mr. Cindric finds time to socialize with the students in their activities. Thus, he is trying to bridge the communication gap everyone says is so apparent with the younger generation of today.

Commencement

The Senior Class president, Dave Thomas, gives last minute instructions.

A group from the high school band plays the opening measures of "Pomp and Circumstance".

Mike Stroub, who was elected class speaker, delivers the class message.

Jane Boes, a member of Honor Society, receives the emblem from Mr. Slough.

Gerry Epley accepts his diploma with pride.

The graduates turn their tassels with the class motto lingering in their minds, "One hill climbed, mountains beyond."

Deb Conrad receives her diploma while proud parents and friends look on.

Senior Assembly

The Junior Class president, Glen Steyer, accepts the Senior key from Dave Thomas, the Senior Class president.

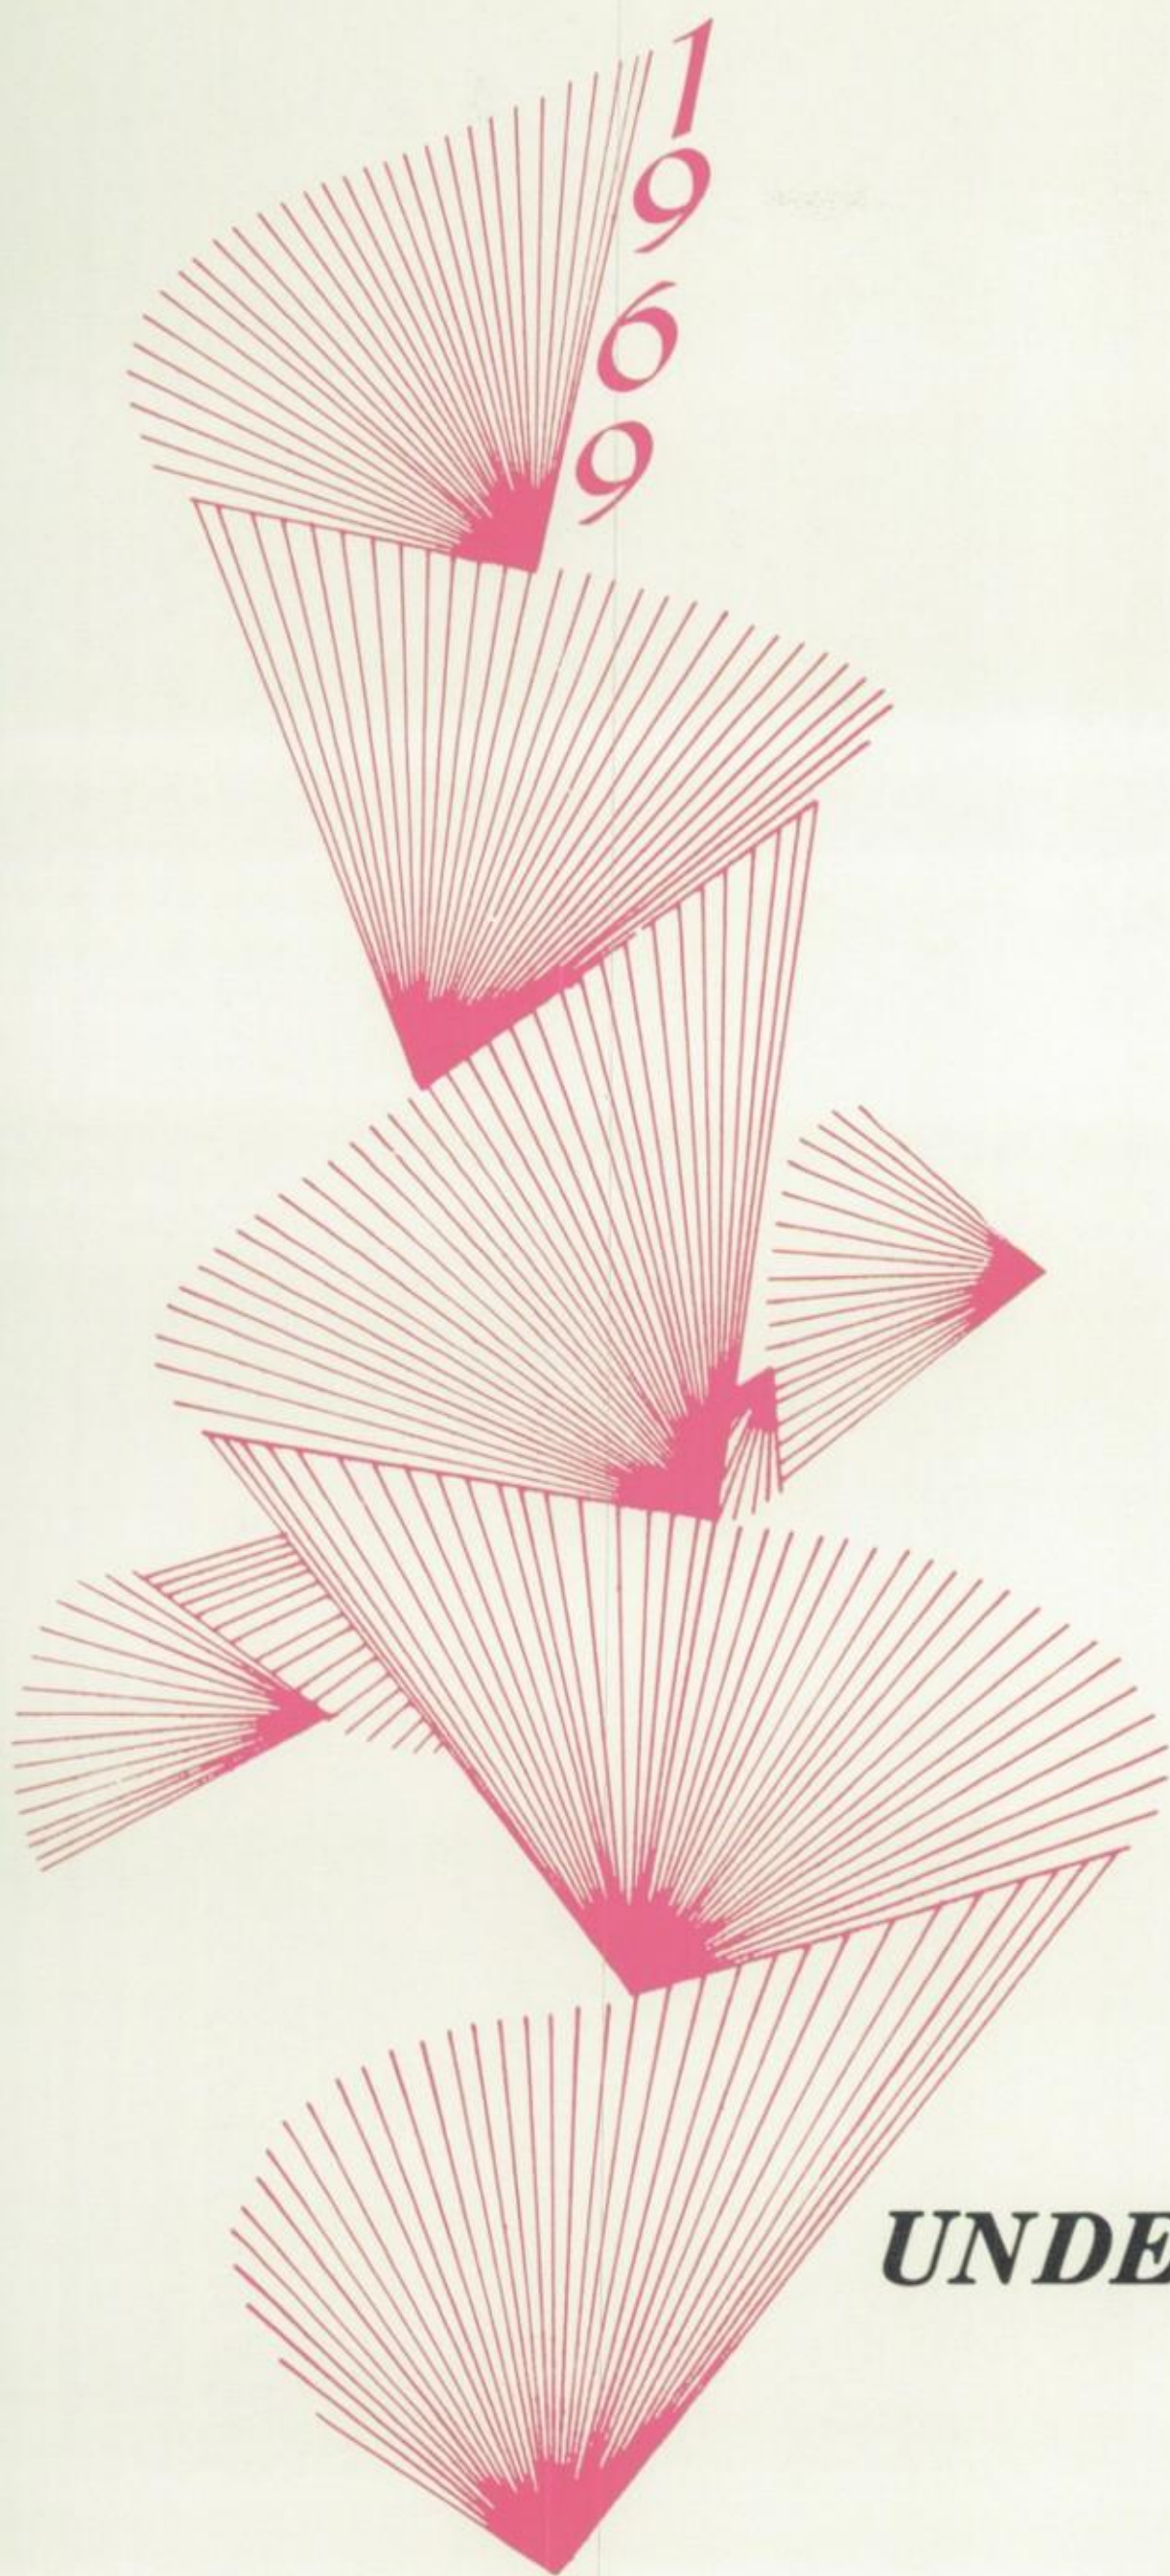

Gayle Brown receives a student council award from Mrs. Wykoff.

The final assembly for the Class of '69 was held on May 23, 1969. First on the program was the class history, compiled by Alice Peters. Cheryl Heischman composed and presented the class poem, and the class wills were read by Sue Graumlich. Barb Smith then predicted the futures of the members of the class in the class prophecy. The Senior Choir members sang "Today" and "Climb Every Mountain" during the assembly, and the Senior Class president, Dave Thomas, presented the class key to Glen Steyer, Junior Class president. Senior awards were given in the second part of the program. The program concluded with the Class of '69 singing the Alma Mater.

The Seniors of Arcadia High School sing their Alma Mater for the last time as students.

Homecoming Happenings

The football homecoming, sponsored by the Student Council, was held on October eleventh. It was a clear fall evening when Queen Gayle and her court assembled to await the regal festivities. The royalty included Ron Conine, Terri Nickelson, Dawn Wonders, Jim Margraf, Chuck Ebersole, Cindy Nickelson, Cheryl Heischman, Jon

Hill, Brad Adams, Queen Gayle Brown, King Mike Stroub, and Becky Logan. Following the crowning, the mighty Redskins made the evening a complete success by winning the Arcadia vs Liberty Benton football game.

Junior Activities

The Junior Class presented their first play this year, "No Crime in the Streets". This drama was a great success.

The more scientific minded ones of the group concocted various brews in the chemistry lab.

Stan Jacobs and Linda Waggoner were editor and assistant-editor respectively of "The Redskin Review" which was put out by the Journalism class.

A number of Juniors tried out their mental abilities on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test.

The girls in Home Economics reupholstered furniture as a part of their training.

The Junior Class members took turns working in the refreshment stand at the home basketball games.

"Evening in Venice"

On May 10, 1969, at the Findlay Elks Club, many Juniors and Seniors, looking stunning in their formal attire, enjoyed the spring Prom. "An Evening In Venice" was the theme used by the Student Council, sponsors of the Prom, under the direction of Mrs. Wykoff, advisor.

Gayle Brown, president of Arcadia Student Council, announced that the King and Queen chosen to reign over the festivities were Dave Crouse and Cheryl Heischman.

After the crowning they ascended their thrones which were placed along the beautiful canals of Venice, to watch the dancing of their royal subjects.

The crowning of the queen.

The Junior-Senior Banquet, sponsored by the Junior Class, preceded the Prom. After a delicious meal served in the ballroom of BPOE No. 75, Glen Steyer, president of the Junior Class gave the Welcome. The Response was made by Dave Thomas, president of the Senior Class.

The diners were entertained by a vocal quartet, "The Fifth Power," composed of Stan Jacobs, Chuck Ebersole, Dennis Gaertner and Ralph Beamer.

There was much merriment among the guests when a group of senior boys serenaded them with musical instruments they had used in kindergarten.

“She’s One Of The Boys”

Our fearless leader, Mr. Vrooman.

On May 16, 1969, the Arcadia High School choir presented “She’s One Of the Boys,” a two-act musical comedy.

The plot centers around a young, adventurous detective who in order to solve a mysterious jewel theft, must masquerade as his maidenly aunt, who is currently abroad in Europe. Unexpectedly the aunt returns and the mystery unravels.

Our fearless leader’s wife, Mrs. Vrooman.

Keep your distance, Briggs!!

My bracelet, it's gone!

My dear, you must keep your hair tidy.

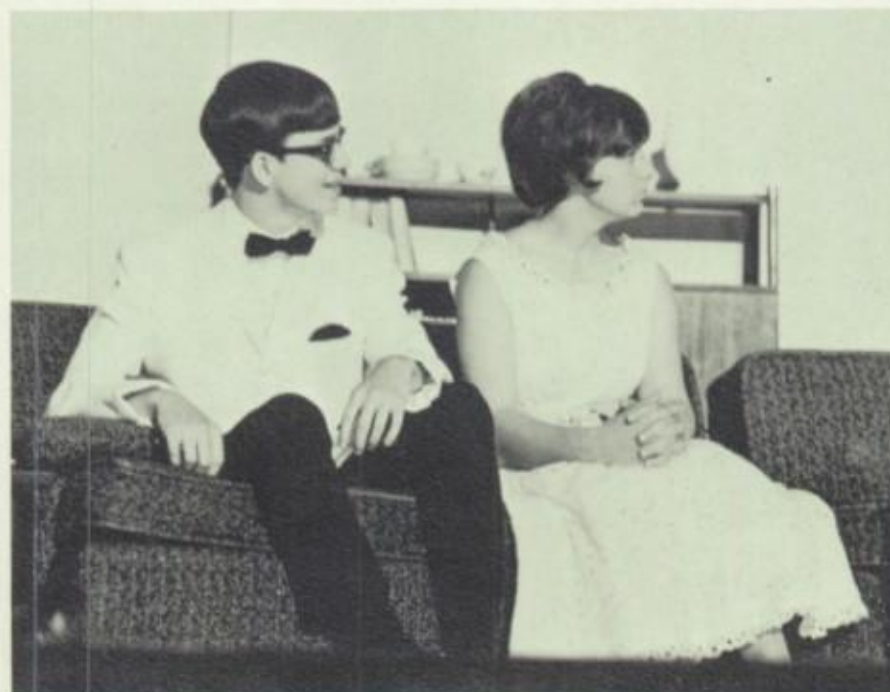

Would you believe ...!

You're the only one for me.

Watch that elbow, sonny!

It can't be that bad!
